8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

9 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,)
10)
11 Plaintiffs,) Case No. C70-9213
12 v.) Subproceeding No. 17-2
13 STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,) STIPULATED CASE SCHEDULE AND 14 Defendants.) ORDER
15 _____)

16 Pursuant to Local Civil Rules 7(d)(1) and 10(g), the undersigned parties respectfully
17 request that the Court enter the following Stipulated Case Schedule. Pursuant to this Court's 18 Orders on Stipulated Case Schedules dated August 11, 2017, and October 12, 2017, the 19 Moving Parties agreed to file two reply briefs on December 15, 2017 not to exceed 12 pages
20 each. Dkt. 21 (8/11/2017) and Dkt. 24 (10/12/2017). The undersigned parties conferred and 21 agree that based on the following reasons, good cause exists to modify the prior stipulation and
22 order:
23
24
25
26

1 1. On November 27, 2017, the Muckleshoot Tribe filed its Response to the Two
2 Motions to Dismiss, and attached over 400 pages of exhibits.

3 2. The Moving Parties realized that due to the large amount of materials and
4 concurrent workload issues, review would require additional time. Muckleshoot agreed to 5 accommodate that additional time request.

6 3. Many of the Moving Parties' attorneys have competing conflicts during the 7 holidays and require additional time to review the materials, and at least one attorney is out of 8 the country from 12/14/2017 to 1/1/2018.

9 4. The Moving Parties agreed to collaborate and streamline the replies and this 10 coordination requires additional time, and they agreed to streamline the replies as follows and 11 to extend the reply date to facilitate that process:

12 a. The replies are to be filed by January 12, 2018.

13 b. The moving parties may file a total of 24 pages of reply materials, split
14 in whatever fashion they choose. In addition, joining parties Squaxin and Puyallup may file
15 their own reply briefs of no more than five pages each.

16 c. The reply briefs will be in strict reply to the arguments made by 17 Muckleshoot.

18 5. The pending motions (Dkt. 25 and Dkt. 27) shall be re-noted for consideration
19 on January 12, 2018.

20 Dated this 12th day of December, 2017.
